Docket No. P-421/AM-16-547

Dear Mr. Wolf:

The Minnesota Public Utilities Commission’s (“Commission”) January 27, 2017 Order in this docket established the primary procedural milestones approved by the Commission at the December 21, 2016 meeting. In addition, the Order allowed the Executive Secretary to approve adjustments to the schedule that are “consistent with the statutory deadline.”¹ The Minnesota Office of the Attorney General (“OAG”) hereby requests that the Executive Secretary approve a modification to the schedule to extend the public comment period to April 13, 2017 in order to ensure that the public is provided a meaningful opportunity to participate in this matter.

The Commission’s January 27 Order reflects decisions made by the Commission in light of the 180-day statutory time period. Unfortunately, many of the concessions to the schedule cut against the public interest. For example, the Order did not provide other parties with an opportunity to review the proposed customer notice before approval by the Executive Secretary, or even notice that review was ongoing. Given the Company’s stated opposition to even provide its customers with notice,² it is troubling that no opportunity for outside review was provided. This could have been accomplished even under the expedited timeline.

The Commission also chose to limit the opportunities for members of the public to participate in the process when it declined to hold informational public meetings, as advocated for by the OAG. Instead, the Commission chose to allow only one avenue for the public's participation: written comments. The Commission's schedule sets March 9, 2016 as the deadline for public comments. March 9 is now only 34 days away. The Commission's Speak Up! message board has not yet been updated to include this docket and it is unclear when CenturyLink's customers will even receive notice, given the uncertainty surrounding the status and timing of the Company's notice to customers. It is thus possible that customers will receive notice of the opportunity to comment with only days left to inform themselves of the issue and submit comments to the Commission.

The OAG hereby requests that the Executive Secretary utilize the authority delegated under the Order to adjust the schedule to allow public comments to be accepted until the date of oral argument, April 13, 2016. This change would have a minimal effect on the parties, but it would have a significant impact on the opportunity that members of the public will have to participate in this docket.

By copy of this letter, all parties have been served. An Affidavit of Service is also enclosed.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joseph A. Dammel
