RE: Commission Inquiry to Examine Streamlining Procedures for Consent Dockets
Docket No. P999/CI-18-382

Dear Mr.

BACKGROUND

On November 5, 2018, the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission (Commission) issued its Order Varying Comment Periods in Certain Uncontested Dockets in the matter of a Commission inquiry to examine streamlining procedures for consent dockets. The November 5, 2018 Order required that the procedural schedules for the following telecommunications dockets would be varied to require that reply comments would be due five calendar days after the Minnesota Department of Commerce (Department) files initial comments on uncontested dockets:

- New Authority (NA) Minn. Stat. § 237.16, subd. 1 (Minn. R. 7812.0200, subp. 7);
- Property Acquisition (PA) Minn. Stat. § 237.23 (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Relinquish Authority (RL) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Service Area (SA) Minn. R. 7812.0300, subp. 5 (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Alternative Miscellaneous (AM) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4); and
- Miscellaneous Changes (M) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4).

The November 5, 2018 Order also authorized staff to follow the streamlined process for undisputed service area amendments. The existing process for undisputed service area amendments is not set forth in rule, and the Commission deemed proposed revised process to be consistent with applicable rules and no variance was required. The Commission declined to adopt the streamlined process for 911 filings.

On June 24, 2024, the Commission issued a Notice of Comment Period, in the current docket. In the Notice, the Commission opened the following topics for comment:

- The efficacy of extending the variance of Minn R. 7811.0200, 7812.0200, and 7829.1400 as described in the Attachment Commission's November 5, 2018 Order Varying Comment Periods in Certain Uncontested Dockets.
- The length of the variance extension.
- Any related issues the parties deem salient.

DEPARTMENT COMMENTS

The Department recommends that the current variance continue to remain in effect until the Commission determines otherwise. Under the Department's recommendation, the current variance, to Minn R. 7811.0200, 7812.0200, and 7829.1400, as initially approved in the Commission's November 5, 2018 Order, would remain in effect for the following telecommunications dockets in uncontested cases:

- New Authority (NA) Minn. Stat. § 237.16, subd. 1 (Minn. R. 7812.0200, subp. 7);
- Property Acquisition (PA) Minn. Stat § 237.23 (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Relinquish Authority (RL) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Service Area (SA) Minn. R. 7812.0300, subp. 5 (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4);
- Alternative Miscellaneous (AM) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4); and
- Miscellaneous Changes (M) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4); and.
- Emergency 911 Plans (EP) (Minn. R. 7829.1400, subps. 1 and 4).

Under the variance approved in the November 5, 2018 Order, a party could request a time extension in the event that more than five days were needed to file reply comments.

While the November 5, 2018 Order declined to adopt the streamlined process for 911 filings made in Emergency Plan – 911 Plan (EP) dockets, the Department is unaware of an adverse impact that would result from applying the streamlined process to EP dockets. When a 911 plan is filed and an EP docket opened, the Commission's practice is not to deem the filing to be complete until the Minnesota Department of Public Safety (DPS) files comments recommending approval of the filing and, if applicable, the Metro Emergency Services Board (MESB) also files comments recommending approval of the filing. The Department's current practice is to await comments from DPS and MESB, recommending approval of the EP filing before filing comments with the Commission on the docket. The Department does not recall an EP docket where a party, aside from DPS, MESB or the carrier submitting the filing has filed comments on an EP docket. However, given that parties will have the opportunity to request a time extension in order to stay the issuance of the Commission's notice of approval on an EP docket, the Department believes the streamlined procedure would work effectively on EP dockets.

The Department is available to work with Commission staff to deal with any procedural issues that may arise in implementing the changes proposed under the June 24, 2024 Notice of Comment Period.

Sincerely,

/s/ DR. SYDNIE LIEB
Assistant Commissioner of Regulatory Affairs
DD/ad
